way to the barracks. Upon arrival at the barracks, Delaney was brought into an interview room and again advised that he did not have to speak with the interviewing agent and investigator and that he was free to leave. He was advised of his "Miranda" warnings via an FD-395 and executed a written waiver of them. Delaney chose to stay and answer further questions. He provided the following information:

Delaney detailed how he found the Tor website initially (through a link on "imagesource" and why he was looking for such material. He denied uploading or trading any child pornographic material with others. He acknowledged that he knew it was illegal to access and download such material and that he had developed a curiosity about it approximately a year ago.

Subsequent to his polygraph examination, Delaney was interviewed by SA Alexander McDonald. That interview was electronically recorded although a technical error prevented the first few minutes of the interview from being recorded. During this interview, Delaney provided a handwritten confession to SA McDonald.

At the conclusion of his interview with SA McDonald, Delaney was arrested. He was transported to the U.S. District Court in Albany for his Initial Appearance. During the trip to Albany, SA Fallon continued interviewing Delaney with regard to his sexual contact with children. Delaney continued to deny any such contact with a child. Delaney signed a written consent authorizing the FBI to access his computer for the purpose of reviewing his Tor account history.

Delaney was fingerprinted and booking photos were taken at NYSP Highline. Those documents, as well as the FD-395 Advise of Rights, the FD-1086 Consent to Assume Online Identity and Delaney's handwritten confession are attached hereto as evidence.
